

COLM BRANNIGAN

ONLINE DISPUTE RESOLUTION

MED-ARB | MEDIATION | ARBITRATION

Based in the GTHA, with a province wide online practice, Colm Brannigan has over two decades of experience as an independent mediator, arbitrator, and med-arbitrator. He has mediated and arbitrated numerous disputes including business, condominium, corporate commercial, construction, employment, workplace, real estate, estates, leasing, insurance, and general civil litigation.

Colm is an acknowledged leader in the development and use of Online Dispute Resolution in Canada. More recently, he has focused on the development and use of an integrated opt-out med-arb process and was the first person to be granted the Chartered Med-Arb designation by the ADR Institute of Canada.

Colm works collaboratively with clients and counsel in mediation, med-arb, and arbitration to deliver practical solutions to manage and resolve disputes in a timely and cost-efficient manner.

Colm's mediation style ranges from facilitative to evaluative depending on the circumstances of the case, and the wishes of the parties and their counsel.

In med-arb and arbitration, Colm's focus is on designing and managing a fair and efficient evidence-based process that is proportional to the dispute.

Colm is a frequent speaker at webinars, conferences, and continuing education programs and has designed ADR courses and programs for various colleges and has been an adjunct faculty member in the law school at Queen's University in Kingston, Ontario.
